WHEREAS, Lee Hsu is a recognized community leader West of Twin Peaks, who is very familiar with the unique character of our western residential neighborhoods and the need for transit alternatives for families and seniors;

WHEREAS, we understand that Lee Hsu is under consideration by the Mayor for appointment to a vacancy on the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency (SFMTA) Board of Directors;

WHEREAS, the West of Twin Peaks Central Council believes that the appointment of Lee Hsu to the SFMTA Board of Directors would be in the best interest of both the City as a whole and of the western residential neighborhoods, would promote a diversity of viewpoints regarding transportation alternatives, would help to preserve neighborhood character, and would encourage excellence and sound judgment in the direction of city transit policy;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the West of Twin Peaks Central Council respectfully urges Mayor Lee to appoint Lee Hsu to the vacancy on the SFMTA Board of Directors and also respectfully urges the San Francisco Board of Supervisors to confirm that appointment.
